

ESAA – DEVON ROLL OF HONOUR

The Devon Public and Secondary Schools Athletic Association was formed in 1935 and held its first inter-schools event at the County Ground in Exeter on March 21st 1936 with 13 schools taking part. Within the first year of its formation 17 of the 34 possible schools in the county had joined. It continued to hold annual meetings until 1949 even running them during the war years.

The Devon Schools' Athletics Association was then formed in 1950. A County Championship should have been held at Exeter on 8th June, 1950 but was cancelled at the last minute. However, a year later its first County Championship was held at the United Services' Ground in Plymouth.

In 1946 Miss R. Haynes of Exeter was Devon's first SAA medallist when winning the silver medal in the 75 yards hurdles race for under-14s.

In 1951 Devon had its first SAA Champion when Peggy Northcott, a pupil at Homelands Secondary Technical School in Torbay, won the Junior javelin title.

The SAA Championship was held in Devon for the first time in 1956 at the Inter-Services Ground, Brickfield in Plymouth.

MULTI-SPORT ATHLETE

Many gifted young athletes who competed in the English Schools' Athletic Association (ESAA) Championships have become very successful in a wide variety of sports including Bobsleigh, Boxing, Cricket, Cycling, Darts, Football, Hockey, Modern Pentathlon, Netball, Powerlifting, Rowing, Rugby League, Rugby Union, Skeleton, Swimming, Triathlon and Weightlifting.

Details follow of 2 Devon ESAA competitors who went on to have a successful career in another sport :

RUGBY UNION – JOHN SCOTT

John represented Devon when winning the 1969 Junior Discus Throw title.

He began his rugby playing career playing for his local club, Exeter Rugby Club. In 1978 he moved to Cardiff RFC where he spent the next 10 years. During this period he played 268 times for Cardiff before retiring in 1988. He captained the side from 1979 and led them to 5 Welsh Cup wins in the years 1981 to 1987.

John made his England debut against France in Paris on the 21st of January, 1978 and went on to captain England on 4 occasions, for 2 games in 1983 and for another 2 games in South Africa in 1984.

He played 34 times for England with his final England international appearance being against South Africa in Johannesburg on the 9th of June, 1984.

RUGBY UNION – STEVE OJOMOH

Steve represented Devon when he won the silver medal in the 1988 ESAA Senior discus. Less than a week later he was with the England Schools Rugby team on a tour of Australia.

Steve played for Moseley before joining Bath RFC in 1989. He made his Bath competitive debut in 1990 and went on to win the Premiership Rugby title 5 times while at the club. In February 1994 he won his first England Rugby Union cap against Ireland. He ended up making 12 appearances for England with his final appearance being against the All Blacks in June 1998.

After 136 games for Bath, Steve moved to Gloucester RFC in 1998 and then played for Rugby Parma in Italy and Newport RFC in Wales before he retired in 2003.

His son, Max, who plays for Bath, made his England debut in 2025 in a match against the USA.
